To Whom it May Concern,

Per NCOEMS rule, Basic and Advanced EMS Educational Institutions may offer educational programs for which they have been credentialed by the NCOEMS.

For initial courses, Advanced Educational Institutions shall meet all requirements of the CAAHEP Standards and Guidelines for the Accreditation of Educational Programs in the Emergency Medical Services Professions.

The Stanly Community College EMS Education Program currently holds an NCOEMS Advanced Education Institution credential which allows them to provide initial and continuing education opportunities for all EMS credential levels.

This credential is valid through March 31, 2029.

Let us know if we can assist further.

Respectfully,

Tonja Mikell-Pool, MS, NRP
